

From the January-February 2008 issue of Sharing, national newsletter of Share Pregnancy and Infant Loss, Inc...

The Good Grief Club: A True Story About the Power of Friendship and French Toast is the heartwarming story of 7 women who met at a suburban Chicago Share group. They each came from different backgrounds, had different experiences and different reasons for their loss, yet they connected in a way that only those who have lost a precious baby can understand. It is a touching book that immerses you in the life, struggles and friendship of these now lifelong friends as they begin to learn to live a new life without their babies that have died. You will laugh through your tears as you read of their journey over the years through grief, subsequent pregnancies, infertility and subsequent losses and how their friendship ultimately helped them each mend their broken hearts. While the emotional pain from the death of a baby never completely goes away, this book will give comfort, hope and inspiration to anyone who has experienced the tragic death of a baby. Novak will donate a portion of the proceeds from the sale of each book to pregnancy and infant loss support programs.

Review by Rose Carlson
Program Director, National Share

